B.Tech V Sem Main Theory Examination Feb 2021

All the students are hereby informed that the B.Tech/MCA V Sem Main Theory Examination will be conducted in both ONLINE (Open Book) / OFFLINE Mode.

Instructions :

1. Those students who want to have 100% weightage of marks of current semester can appear in the exam in OFFLINE mode (in the college in RGPV Answer Book) and those students who appear in ONLINE (Open Book) mode will get 50% weightage of old semesters and 50% weightage of current semester.
2. Students appearing in ONLINE (open book) main theory exam will have to register and upload their answer book in single file pdf format (use Adobe pdf scanner) in the exam portal (degree.rgpvexam.in) or submit their original answer book in their respective Institutes before 7:00 PM on the same day. All previously identified help centers are cancelled. If students are unable to upload / submit their answer book on the same day before 7:00 PM they will be marked ABSENT for that paper. For this student will himself / herself be responsible.
3. No other means of submission like Email / Post is allowed.
4. Students appearing in Online mode can come to college also and appear for their examination.
5. Front page of answer book has already been shared with students and available on RGPV portal (rgpv.ac.in) and should be treated as first page of answer book. Student can add 19 more A4 size ruled pages (Approx.) and on top of each page student will have to write Enrollment No. and subject code and at bottom students have to write the page number and signature (Note : Cover page will be treated as page number 1 in numbering and add on pages will start from page no. 2 onwards). Start writing the answer from cover page only. Write only on one side of the page. Without Front Page your answer book will be rejected.
6. Question paper will be available on student login id on RGPV portal (rgpv.ac.in) before 15 minutes of commencement of exam. If you are not able to download question paper in this duration immediately contact your exam cell.
7. All outstation students are advised to reach Jabalpur for appearing in the examination and prefer to submit answer books in the Institute in order to avoid technical issues.
8. Students appearing in offline mode from the college will have to submit the RGPV prescribed undertaking
